Franklin County Treasurer to Receive the 2013 AFL-CIO Community Service Award

Columbus, (OH) – Franklin County Treasurer Ed Leonard will receive the 2013 AFL-CIO Community Service Award at the 54th Annual George Meany Awards Banquet on Thursday, March 21, 2013.

The banquet is sponsored by the Central Ohio Labor Council AFL-CIO in cooperation with the United Way of Central Ohio Community Services Department. The banquet will be held at Villa Milano, 1630 Schrock Road in Columbus. Dinner begins at 7:00pm.

In addition to this career of public service, Treasurer Leonard is being recognized for his work on the boards of The Harmony Project, an arts and services organization, St. Stephens Community House and the Central Ohio Regional Board of the Children's Hunger Alliance. "The Central Ohio Labor Council and the United Way do such amazing work in our community. I am deeply humbled to be receiving an award from such great organizations" stated Treasurer Leonard.

Additional award recipients include: George Meany Award to Randy Kocheran, President, Bakers Local 57; AFL-CIO Scouting Award to Jennifer Elliott, Ohio Nurses Association; and Organized Labor Youth Services Award to the Hamilton Intermediate Rangers Community Helpers.
